How to Pay: Kate accepts payment by cash, credit or debit card at her shop and exhibitions, or via bank transfer, izzettle payment links, PayPal and cheque for customers who are not present. All payments need to have been made and cleared prior to collection or posting. Kate cannot accept cheques for international payments. Commission Deposits: A 50% deposit is required prior to work commencing on the artwork. This deposit covers materials and art preparation time, so is non-refundable. The remaining 50% is payable upon completion of the project and prior to the supply of the original artwork to the customer.

No Refunds: All paintings and products are non-refundable, but please let Kate know if you have a problem with anything.

Postage: Artwork and other products can be collected from Kate's shop inside the Christchurch Emporium or her studio in Bournemouth, UK. If you are local then artwork can be delivered to you for a small fee. If your artwork needs to be posted further afield it will be well packaged and posted and require a signature when received in the UK. International postage varies and arrangements can be made individually. It is the sole responsibility of the customer to ensure that someone is available to take and sign for a delivery and to check the delivery contents before signing for them. Please note that compensation is refused by postal companies if you do not inform them of an issue at the point of delivery. Some international countries may also add on taxes, and in this unlikely event any such costs incurred will be the sole responsibility of the customer.
